

A Nurse's Story

If you are a sufferer from headache, neuralgia, or pain from any cause you should read the following letter from a nurse.

"For sometime I have felt it my duty to write you as I was having my doctor twice every week for headache. All he did for me was to give me something to ease the pain. Sometimes the pain was so severe that I could not speak, and members of my family stood over me and gave me medicine every fifteen minutes until I was relieved. A sample of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills fell into my hands. I read the circular very carefully, and found my case described exactly. The next time my head began to ache I took the Anti-Pain Pills according to directions and I felt I was getting better, so I sent to the drugstore for a box and took them until I was so much better that I was about the house all the afternoon. I have not had a doctor for headache since. When he knew how I was, and I told him what I had done, and he replied: 'If you have found anything that will help you, stick to it,' and so I have. Being a nurse I have recommended them to a great many grateful people. One case I will mention. I saw a doctor go to a neighbor every week for months because she had such awful headaches; but for a long time I dared not suggest anything to her. One day I met her and I gave her a half a box of Anti-Pain Pills and she used them and has had no doctor since. She says they are a great blessing to her and said, 'why didn't you tell me about them before.' I could tell you of many similar cases."

THIS COUNTY CLERK

A LAW-ABIDER

Tacked on the wall in plain sight of all in the county clerk's office is a placard telling in unmistakable language what the new "corrupt practice" act means to all men holding office by election or appointment.

In the future all solicitors, be they for a church or a prize fight, had just as well stay out of the court house and city hall. Even the shy dame that sells the War Cry and collects money on her tamborine, will get the look that means little and costs nothing.

Here is the contents of the card, which explains itself:

"Warning—The corrupt practices law enacted by the people at a regular general election held on the first day of June, 1908, prohibits the solicitation by any person from public officials or their deputies, subscriptions for any religious, charitable or political organizations, and prohibits public officials or their deputies from subscribing to such organizations, or purchasing tickets for raffles, entertainments or balls, under penalty of five years' imprisonment or fine of not more than $5000, or by both fine and imprisonment."

"Section 24. No person shall demand, solicit, ask or invite any payment or contribution for any religious, political, charitable or other cause or organization, supposed to be primarily or principally for the public good from a person who seeks to be or has been nominated or elected to any office; and no such candidate or elected person shall make any such payment or contribution if it shall be demanded or asked during the time he is a candidate for nomination or election to, or an incumbent of any office. . . . No person shall demand, solicit, ask or invite any candidate to subscribe to the support of any club or organization, or buy tickets to any entertainment or ball, or to subscribe for or pay for space in any book, program, periodical or other publication; if any candidate shall make any such payment or contribution he shall be guilty of a corrupt practice."

Marked for Death

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A grave-yard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac Ky. The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored. This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Medicine That Is Medicine.

I have suffered a good deal with malaria and stomach complaints, but I have now found a remedy that keeps me well, and that remedy is Electric Bitters; a medicine that is medicine for stomach and liver troubles, and for run down conditions," says W. C. Klester, of Halliday, Ark. Electric Bitters purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves, and impart vigor and energy to the weak. Your money will be refunded if it fails to help you. 50c at J.
